

Scaling Up Local Circular Economy

CITY2CITY SESSION

This session will focus on stressing the value of scaling up to get local circular economy practices out of a just piloting logic. The online city-to-city exchange will try to consistently assemblage a number of insights, relevant experiences and new paths in order to accelerate the transition from linear to more circular urban economies, with a spotlight on firm performance.

REGISTER

zoom

December 14th 2020 [14:00 – 16:00 CET]

Welcome [14:00 – 14:05]

Resourceful Cities lead expert Eileen Crawley

From piloting to mainstreaming: why scaling up matters [14:05 – 14:20]

Miguel Rivas, partner at TASO

Experiences I – Startup acceleration [14:20 – 14:30]

ELEVADOR and JUMP, Silvia Costa, Entrepreneur Support Office Vila Nova de Famalicão

Experiences II – Events [14:30 – 14:40]

Circular Weekend, Agustín Valentín-Gamazo, CEO of Enviroo

Open discussion [14:40 – 14:55]

Pause [14:55 – 15:05]

Experiences III – Circular economy hubs [15:05 – 15:15]

Athens´ Kypseli municipal market, Elena Lamprou, Impact Hub Athens

Accelerating frameworks to mainstream circular economy patterns [15:15 – 15:30]

Miguel Rivas, partner at TASO

Experiences IV – Sector-focused strategies promoting circularity [15:30 – 15:40]

Circular models leveraging investments in cultural heritage, Antonia Gravagnuolo, Researcher at CNR-IRISS and coordinator of Horizon 2020 project CLIC

Open discussion [15:40 – 15:55]

Closing remark [15:55 – 16:00]

Scaling up strategies: what role for Urban Resource Centres?

Jan Harko Post, City of the Hague, Resourceful Cities coordinator

